VALLEY VINEYARD

2009 RIESLING

TASTING NOTES

The Coal Valley Vineyard 2009 Riesling is a fresh, crisp, dry white wine with an attractive lime and passionfruit nose and palate. Elegant and well balanced with a backbone of juicy cool climate acid that fills the mouth and lingers. Drink now while young and fresh or cellar for years to come. Enjoy with fish and seafood, particularly oysters or as a refreshing pre-dinner drink.

COLOUR

Bright, clear, straw green

BOUQUET

Pleasant floral, passionfruit and lime.

PALATE

Fresh, clean, crisp with passionfruit and lime.

ALCOHOL

11.5 %

CELLARING

Fresh enjoyable drinking right now or wait until 2015

FOOD

Perfect with fish and seafood, particularly oysters natural. Although dry, this Riesling has enough juicy acidity to make it enjoyable with Thai fish curry.
